Handbells help Hampshire East Guides Celebrate One Hundred Years!

As part of a full two days of events at the end of February, across the county, Guides and Brownies were invited to try a mixture of activities marking their hundred years.

"Have you lost a clapper?"

Activities at Horndean Community School included rock guitar lessons, samba drumming, graffiti production and hand bell ringing in the change ringing style. Roy Grayson and Allan Yalden were 'volunteered' as active Trefoil Guide members to lend a hand.

"Put your thumb on the rivet."

Brownies and leaders were, after starting at rounds, mostly able to Plain Hunt a single bell in the designated forty-five minutes allowed.
